

Porter Wagoner, Keep On Loving You

In my search for ways to stop the pain of loving you in my darkest moments all alone
In the middle of a million sweet love mem'ries searching for a reason to go on Though we never said I do I never said I wouldn't And though you say we're through there's no reason why I shouldn't Keep on loving you keep on loving you

If you fail to find the dreams that you are searching for
And you never find a love to call your own
Don't you hesitate a minute to come back to me
I'll always be right here to fall back on
Though we never said I do...
Keep on loving you yes I'll keep on loving you
