

Porter Wagoner, Your Love

Look in my eyes let me see your love give me your hand let me feel your love
With you in my arms your breath on my cheek and your kiss on my lips
Oooh I can feel your love
Whisper to me let me hear your love stay near to me let me feel your love
I don't know why guess I would die if I ever lost you
Oooh let me feel your love
(steel)
Sometimes I'm weak a new thrill I seek must be the devil in me
Please understand let me feel your love
