

Portishead, Strangers

Ohh.....

Can anybody see the light

Where the morn meets the dew and the tide rises

Did you realise, no one can see inside your view

Did you realise, forwhy this sight belongs to you

Ohh.....

Just set aside your fears of life

Thru this sole desire

Done it warning

Done it now

This ain't real

On in this side

Done it warning

Done it now

This ain't real

On in this side

[INSTRUMENTAL]

Done it warning

Done it now

This ain't real

Done it waring

Done it now

This ain't real

On in this side

Ohh.....

Can anybody see the light

Were the morn meets the dew and the tide rises

Did you realise, no one can ever see inside you view

Did you realise, forewhy this sight belongs to you
