yes it's all I'll making of
we can never give enough, you got to believe baby love children every minute every hour when we love we got the power when we finally realize, open up' arise' secrets of my life, everyone was like an open book before you, all the time

Bridge, Chorus, Instrument love! cause there's nothing else but love

love children every minute every hour
when we love we got the power when we finally realize, open up' alright' tell me can you feel it, moving in your soul there is nothing to it, let it be and let it go in everything you say, in everything you do you got to do with baby, do it and know that we can do no, cause there's nothing after love we can never give enough no children every minute every hour give it all the love, come on, give it all the love everything we need, is coming just the way supposed to be
