

Power Of Omens, Alone I Stand

Now it seems, all of yesterdays dreams gone
For some time now, I'll close my mind and sleep
Which way to turn what faces to follow
The screams of lies have been broken now
A vision of the secret land has been placed in these hands
Will you believe me when I say?
Will you tell me things that I used to say?
Will I remember how it was?
Now take the last drop of blood
Now everyone inside
I'll show you that it's time
Please and try to understand
The world is going to end now
And if you will believe
That I am the one that has been chosen
For something I do not yet understand
So I'm all alone now laughed at and torn in two
Which one will I follow I don't know
I'm not for sure
I'm not for sure
Laughed at and torn in two
Laughed at and torn, Why?
Laughed at and torn in two
Laughed at, laughed at, laughed at
Why must I feel so Alone I Stand
Why must I feel so Alone?
Will you believe me when I say?
Will you tell me things that I used to say?
Will I remember how it was?
Now take the last drop of blood
Now everyone inside
I'll show you that it's time
Please and try to understand
The world is going to end now
And if you will believe
That I am the one that has been chosen
For something I do not yet understand
