

Preshrunk, The street

The flames still burning in my heart
As I walk the street I grew up in Hangin out with all my friends
Good and hard times that weve had
Some of them are still with me
Still my friends, like family
No matter what we did
Always there for each other
Never let me down
They never let me down
I wont forget
Never forget that street