

Prettier Than Pink, No Worries

I've been so hurt so many times before
I don't think I can go through the pain anymore
Just when everything seemed so right
I get alone again at night
When I had a broken heart
It seemed like the world would end
I don't ever wanna go through that again
I'd rather be alone than to fall in love
'Coz being alone means...

Refrain:

No worries, no miseries
No heartaches, no one to disturb me
Gotten over that phase
I'm not stumbling down again
Call me crazy but I don't give a damn
I'd rather be alone than to fall in love
'Coz being alone means...

Repeat Refrain

But I know someday
I'm gonna find the right guy to make me happy
'Coz he won't give me no worries

Repeat Verse 1
