Prima Dona, American Pie

A long, long time ago, I can still remember How that music used to make me smile And I knew if I had my chance, That I could make those people dance And maybe they'd be happy for a while

But February made me shiver, With every paper I'd deliver Bad news on the doorstep, I couldn't take one more step

I can't remember if I cried When I read about his widowed bride But something touched me deep inside The day the music died

Chorus

Bye, bye Miss American Pie Drove my Chevy to the levee but the levee was dry And the good old boys were drinking whiskey and rye Singing this will be the day that I die, This will be the day that I die

Did you write the book of love And do you have faith in God above, If the Bible tells you so? Now, do you believe in rock and roll Can music save your mortal soul And can you teach me how to dance real slow?

Well, I know that you're in love with him 'Cause I saw you dancing in the gym You both kicked off your shoes, Man, I dig those rhythm and blues!

I was a lonely teenage broncin' buck With a pink carnation and a pickup truck But I knew that I was out of luck The day the music died

I started singing

Chorus

Now for ten years we've been on our own, And moss grows fat on a Rolling Stone But that's not how it used to be When The Jester sang for The King and Queen In a coat he borrowed from James Dean In a voice that came from you and me

And while The King was looking down, The Jester stole his thorny crown The courtroom was adjourned, No verdict was returned

And while Lennon read a book on Marx, The quartet practiced in the park And we sang dirges in the dark The day the music died

We were singing

Chorus

Helter Skelter in a summer swelter The Byrds flew off with a fall out shelter Eight miles high and falling fast It landed foul on the grass The players tried for a forward pass With The Jester on the sidelines in a cast

Now, the halftime air was sweet perfume While The Sergeants played a marching tune We all got up to dance, Oh, but we never got the chance 'Cause the players tried to take the field The marching band refused to yield! Do you recall what was revealed The day the music died?

We started singing

Chorus

Oh, and there we were all in one place A generation lost in space With no time left to start again So come on Jack be nimble, Jack be quick Jack Flash sat on a candle stick because Fire is the devil's only friend

Oh, and as I watched him on the stage My hands were clenched in fists of rage No angel born in Hell Could break that Satan's spell

And as the flames climbed high into the night To light the sacrificial rite I saw Satan laughing with delight The day the music died

He was singing

Chorus

I met a girl who sang the blues And I asked her for some happy news... But she just smiled and turned away I went down to the sacred store Where I'd heard the music years before But the man there said the music wouldn't play

And in the streets the children screamed The lovers cried and the poets dreamed But not a word was spoken The church bells all were broken

And the three men I admire most The Father, Son and the Holy Ghost They caught the last train for the coast The day the music died

And they were singing

Bye, bye Miss American Pie

Drove my Chevy to the levee but the levee was dry And them good old boys were drinking whiskey and rye Singin' this will be the day that I die This'll be the day that I die

They were singin'

Bye, bye Miss American Pie Drove my Chevy to the levee but the levee was dry The good old boys were drinking whiskey and rye Singing this will be the day that I die...
