

Primal Scream, Burning Wheel

Fell from grace, i lost my faith
My heart feels like a stone
I'm payin' the price of of a drunken night
I'm wastin' in the twilight zone
Broke the spell, i hate myself
The light of love don't shine
A women's touch can cost so much
I've lost my pearl messin' with swine
Fly me home on a big jet plane
Fly me home through the thunder and rain
Fly me home to the healin' hands
Fly me home to the promised land
Pain won't quit, my head's in bits
Desire as sin is a jail
I'll make a vow and break a vow
Oh, nothin' beats a try but a fail*
* repeat twice
Take me home on a big jet plane
Take me home through the thunder and rain
Take me home to the healin' hands
Take me home to the promised land
repeat to fade
