

Primal Scream, Velocity Girl

Here she comes again
With vodka in her veins
Been playing with a spike
She couldn't get it right

Splendour in silver dress
Velocity possessed
The world was hers again
It fell apart again

I don't need anyone to hurt me
No, not anyone at all
`Cause my so-called friends have left me
And I don't care at all

Leave me alone
