

Primal Scream, Where the Light Gets In (ft. Sky F

Broken light's the only light I know
How to make it through this world alone?
Love has become strange and then estranged
Ended there, but there it starts again

Obsession, position
Ecstatic, deception
Trick and defiance
Bounds of desire

It's your sin, peace begins with them
I'm never gonna try again
It's your sin, peace begins with them
The world is a place where the light gets in

Said you'll let emotion burn away
Stare into the darkness of the day
Images are not like memories
Lovers take the plunder, then they leave

Obsession, position
Temptation, transgression
We're second, we're active
The script is predestined
The show of sin
It's your sin, peace begins with them
I'm never gonna try again
It's your sin, peace begins with them
The world is a place where the light gets in
It's your sin, peace begins with them
I'm never gonna try again
It's your sin, peace begins with them
The world is a place where the light gets in

It's your sin, peace begins with them
I'm never gonna try again
It's your sin, peace begins with them
The world is a place where the light gets in
