

Princess, After The Love Has Gone

I read the words time and time again

I could not believe my eyes.
You broke my heart in ev'ry line - how you hurt me!
When I think about how it used to be

We'd see each other every day.
Now you say things have changed - how you hurt me!

After the love has gone
how can I go on?
When there's nothing anyone can do
I'm still in love with you.
After the love has gone - love has gone - oh
I must be strong

But life must go on after the love has gone.

I gave you ev'rything
I gave you all my love

How you make me feel secure.
But now you shut the door - how you hurt me!

After the love has gone
how can I go on? . . .

When there's nothing anyone can do
I'm still in love with you.
After the love has gone - love has gone - oh
I must be strong

But life must go on after the love has gone.
After the love has gone
how can I go on?
When there's nothing anyone can do
I'm still in love with you.
