Pro-Pain, Lock n' Load

Arrogance is all around us How can we relax? All our friends and foes surround us to stab us in the backs Your minds and worlds we'll rock to take us to the dusty road But now's the time we lock and load

False compassion makes me sick Determination makes us tick Like a bomb that's sent to blow you a kiss from G.I. Joe Throw brad and the geese will flock where hearts and mines explode The perfect place to lock and load
