

Procol Harum, This Old Dog

Drank a little too much wine last night
Drank a little too much wine last night
Got myself into one hell of a fight
Drank a little too much wine last night

Had a few too many nights without sleep last week
Had a few too many nights without sleep last week

Got myself on the edge of one hell of a losing streak
Had a few too many nights without sleep last week

Got to be a bit more straight these days
Got to be a bit more straight these days
This old dog has to learn some new ways
Got to be a bit more straight these days
