

Project Pitchfork, Lightwave

Day in and day out
You are moving
You are standing
Head in the clouds
Acting without emotion
You are waiting
You are saving
Holding all back
Hating life for the weather
On a weekend
Free chosen feelings
Are raining back
Down on you
Your cage is too small for you

Here comes the army of light
Open your heart - there will be no fight
The sword is the word
Which brings you the truth
The flame is the light inside your eyes□
Here comes the army of light
Open your mind - there is the fight
The sword is the word - revealing the truth
The pain comes from the lies
You hide inside
