

Projecto, Alone In A Mirror

Now I know what we have said
Now I know in what we've always believed
I can feel indifference
I can feel what we have lost in our hearts

By now we live to survive
By now we live thinking of ourselves
I can see tired people
I can see dusk in their eyes

Now I keep on walking
And I feel cold around me
In this rainy day

We live like strangers
Gated and trapped in a mirror
Forever lonely
