

Projet Orange, Ballade

I won't beg
Nothing's going white behind
There's night behind the stairs

I fall asleep
Would you ever?
Please remind me
There's no reason to go away

I won't miss it
As you quiver there's night behind
I'm facing another day
You get all sad
So I collected all the sentences hidden in the wall

This is the full weight of me on you
You're sticking to me in my bones
You're sticking to me in my veins

Never Forget
I believe I won't deny wait for a long day
I left behind the silken flowers so desperate for water
It's hard to forget things like you behind the morning or me inside the wall

This is the full weight of me on you
You're sticking to me there's our bed
You're sticking to me in my veins

Tonight
You lie
Tonight

Yeah you lie
Tonight
To me
You lie
Tonight

I won't fail, I believe it's underneath us, I'll find it again.
