

Promise Of Redemption, Seems Like Just Yesterday

It seems like just yesterday
I watched it go by
I'm walking into your life just to say goodbye

Oh, if I hear that doorknob turn so many times before
Oh, if I hear it one more time I'm gonna kick down that fucking door

So just close your eyes
And when you open them I'll be gone
Just like some trick
But that's what you wanted all along

Oh, if I hear that doorknob turn so many times before
Oh, if I hear it one more time I'm gonna kick down that fucking door

So just close your eyes
And when you open them I'll be gone
Just like some trick
But that's what you wanted all along

So just close your eyes
And say goodbye
Cause there's no need for me to stay

And close your eyes
And say goodbye (goodbye)
Cause there's no need for me to stay
