Promoe, Dawn

" Somewhere a new baby's born/ could there be somewhere a new day be dawned/ Promoe kicks rhymes with an amazing form/ despite the hate and scorn and the crazy norm/ I praise the morn, the light at the end of the tunnel/ the fire burning we got songs in a bundle/ From the Wax cabinet the late night sessions/ workin' till the sun beams comin' thrue to bless us/ Restless souls in the freshest mode/ dedicated to makin it hot in a place that's cold/ So beautiful at the same time poisonous/ put drugs in the food cus they wanna poison us/ So I nyam on no meat land on both feet/ blow kisses to the women of the world you're so sweet/ Grow seeds planted in fertile soil/ plenty of love and light so the birth ain't spoiled/ The birth of a baby girl a brave new world/ the birth of a brand new album that straight will burn/ And make you turn away from the run of the mill in this/ new era of musical possibilities/ From the camp that brought you anthems like let me see/ the whole back catalogue from DVSG/ And here's what people like you had to say about/ the new album that just came out/ "
