

Promoe, Freedom Fighters

"Freedom fighters in the streets rock, rock on/
fighting for freedom, writing for freedom/

Promoe:

I'm here to give a voice to all the blurred faces/
the ones who vandalize and disturb neighbours/
The ones who go to court and get no legal aid/have no rights in society but to keep the evil paid/
The ones that are outlawed worse than Reno Raines/and make the average Joe on the street demand cleaner trains/
The ones whose history ya'll want to erase/no history's no future, despair in their face/
The ones who get beat up by police and toy cops/like my boys got victims of boycotts/you claim they're not political but to me/
the whole art form questions private property/
A political crime of passion/
this one is to my train bombing, train trashing...

Freedom fighters in the streets rock, rock on/
fighting for freedom, writing for freedom/

Chorus:

I represent the spray paint artist/
I can feel your pain and hardships/
I know you're workin' the grave yard shift/
so you can keep that train yard hit/
And though society hate our shit/and love feh build their great star ships/
I know as long as your brave heart ticks/
It's on your side the creators sits/

Promoe:

You're never home sleepin' always out peepin' the yard/
you doin' whole cars with no guards/
If 5-0 show up do throw ups on po-po's car/
you blow up the precinct if they put you behind bars/You're smart, no heart for a system that hates you/
you praise true masters like Seen and Phase 2/
You amaze crews and do a one man whole train/
that'll bring fame to your name like John Coltrane/Disregard cold rain and bad weather you'd better/practice your letters cus you gotta get better/Yo yo get up get out and do something/you can't sleep cus you wanna become king of bombing/Equipped with bomb ink and the most fat caps/
and a walkman with Promoes fat rap/

Freedom fighters in the streets rock, rock on/
fighting for freedom, writing for freedom/

Cosmic:

Who can tell you what you can do and can not?/
Who can beat you down, smash your face and put on hand cuffs?/
Who built the cage and who makes sure you stay in it?/
Who can break the law, break your jaw and get away with it?/
Who sets up trials then calling you a liar?/
Who is out spying preparing train yards with barbed wire?/
Who represent the evil with no regret?/
Who forget about the people and what punishment we get?/
but yo Who is out jumping electrified fences?/
Who is throwing rocks at hidden camera lenses?/
Who is getting raw shitty to get up all city?/
who is writing graffiti but never admit that they did it?/

Who is discriminated and not told the truth?/
Who's affiliated to killers according to the news?/
Who goes by the names of Suer, Swob and Jeis/
Kaos, Side, Heis, Cake and Obey?/
Who is on the frontline fighting sodomite?/
I gotta say peace to my peeps and all of my...

Freedom fighters in the streets rock, rock on/
fighting for freedom, writing for freedom/

Chorus

Promoe:
To all my freedom fighters let me see them lighters/
if you're fed up with security guards who beat up writers/Fed up with seeing your pieces get buffed/
police that's corrupt and leaders that bluff/Fed up with a unjust justice system/
we gotta teach our young ones cuss the system/
If you're fed up with the gun busts, cuffs and prisons/then let me see you pump pump up your fist son/
Listen, you hear the freedom chimes? playin' at the speed of rhyme/tellin' you to free your mind/Graffiti is a freedom crime, beautiful and revolutionary/suitable for revolutionaries/
On that road seldom travelled by the multitude/remember this when the cops come to fuck with you...

Freedom fighters in the streets rock, rock on/
fighting for freedom, writing for freedom/
