

Prong, For Dear Life

You make the right moves, I beg to differ
Rather be a fool and see things clearer.
You found a quick way to fill your pocket.
That's the way in a world that's lost it
To fall in line
It's meaningless mindlessness.
I beg to differ
Disharmony amongst all our brothers.
That's okay, be true to our grudges.
No desire to walk beside you.
Nothing positive when forced upon you.
(So fall in me) Just fall in line
It's meaningless, mindlessness.
I beg to differ.
