

Psycore, I Go Solo

everyone has problems
i'm sorry for you
i too hurt when you hurt because i care for you

but you have no reason to take it out on me
not worth it, i resign
set myself free

next time i'll be gone when the shit hits the fan
find someone else than me i'm not your garbage can i listen if you're sad

when you're mad or such one time is ok
but a billion time is a bit to much

i can never be
what you want me to be
i can never do
what you want me to
so i go solo

i'm too proud to let you take a seat on me
i choose to wise up and

maybe you don't mean to act the way you do your problem, not mine
trapped i suffer, free i'm fine remember way back when the trouble began

turned slowly from lover into your garbage can

oh la la, time to go
oh la la, i go solo
