Pulley, Poltergeist

don't wait until it's too late everyone is gone everyone is here i won't wake up to find myself alone lying on the bed of nails and try to figure what went wrong so all my life destroyed my mind give me all the drugs you have one more shot and i'll be dead all this time and i'm still alive take one step in front of me don't look back or you will open up the world that's rolling around inside your room and let the monsters out open up the world that's rolling around inside your head and let yourself out

i can't even try to change the past cause everywhere i walk they will follow me there everything then seen inside of me is a piece of something something that they'll never be
