Purple Disco Machine, Beat Of Your Heart - feat.

There's a sound like a drum echoin'
When the high from your love's kickin' in
And it hits like the Holy Ghost
A million-mile-an-hour wind
Pour some fuel on the floor, make a fire
Strike a match, light the flame of desire
Keep me warm 'cause this town is cold
All night long

You make the spot light up wherever we are All night, we're magnetically charged Lightning couldn't strike us apart You got me dancin' to the beat of your heart True love in a city of lies Get lost when I look in your eyes Lightning couldn't strike us apart You got me dancin' to the beat of your heart

Pleadin' guilty, I'm not innocent If the crime is your love, let me sin Prayin' nobody saves my soul, oh no

Spin me around, take me up, take me down, high and low Spin me around, lift me up off the ground, don't let go All night long

You make the spot light up wherever we are All night, we're magnetically charged Lightning couldn't strike us apart You got me dancin' to the beat of your heart True love in a city of lies Get lost when I look in your eyes Lightning couldn't strike us apart You got me dancin' to the beat of your heart

You got me dancin', I'm dancin' to the beat of your heart You got me dancin', I'm dancin' to the beat of your heart You got me dancin', I'm dancin' to the beat of your heart You got me dancin' to the beat of your heart
