

Puscifer, Momma Sed

(uhm,K... Hit it)

Wake up, son of mine.
Momma got something to tell you.
Changes come.
Life will have it's way
With your pride, son.
Take it like a man.

Hang on, son of mine,
A storm is blowing up your horizon.

Changes come,
Keep your dignity,
Take the high road,
Take it like a man.

Listen up, son of mine.
Momma got something to tell you.
All about growing pains.
Life will pound away
Where the light don't shine, son.
Take it like a man.

Suck it up, son of mine,
Thunder blowing up your horizon.

Changes come (Changes come)
Keep your dignity (Keep your dignity)
Take the higher road (Take the higher road)
Take it like a man (Take it like a man)

Momma said "like the rain (this too shall pass"),
"Like a kidney stone (This too shall pass),
It's just a broken heart, son (Broken heart, son).
This pain will pass away.

(Now turn the thing off)
