

Q-Tex, Power of love

I want you, I need you, I want you, I need you...
Can you feel the fire burning as it takes control of you
There is nowhere you can turn, there is nothing you can do (Ohh Yeah)
Your heart will never be free as it takes you high above
So baby won't you come with me and we can fly on the power of love
I want you, I need you, so baby won't you come with me.
Can you feel, the power of love
I want you, I need you, so baby won't you come with me
I want you, I need you, so baby won't you come with me
I want you, I need you, so baby won't you come with me
Can you feel, the power of love
