

Quasi, This Isn't Heaven

I can't believe you were so naive.
Ignorance was bliss - easier than this.
It makes perfect sense; you had no defence
Except foolish pride - you would hide inside.
This isn't heaven & you are only human - oh, how dissappointing.
How far away from the past can you be?
How near now, yet still not see?
A dream of a dream, you were doomed to fail.
Beside your dreams life seems so pale.
Meanwhile the earth moves around the sun, not you -
How dissappointing
