

Queen Adreena, I Adore You

They open my window, in comes the light
I froze in the corner, I pray for the night
But if it's you my dear who turns on the light
I'll eat from your hands as a bird with no fear, no no

Because I adore you
I adore you
Because I adore you
I adore you

Rise up my dark star, face into the light
Come out of your corner, shine for the night
if it's you my love who turns on the light
I'll eat from your hands as a bird with no fear, no no

Because I adore you
I adore you
Because I adore you
I adore you
Because I adore you
I adore you
I adore you

(Gibberish)

Climb out of the shadows, crawl into the light
Fall out of the window, die to the night
if it's you my love who turns on the light
I'll eat from your hands as a bird with no fear, no no

Because I adore you
I adore you
Because I adore you
I adore you
Because I adore you (I adore you)
I adore you (I adore you)
I adore you (I adore you)
I adore you (I adore you)
Because I adore you (I adore you)
I adore you (I adore you)
Because I adore you (I adore you)
I adore you (I adore you)
Because I adore you
