Queens Of The Stone Age, Negative Space

Utwór 'Negative Space' z albumu 'In Times New Roman' od Queens Of The Stone Age (premiera 1

In an atmosfear I don't recognize...
I don't know what's true, particularly if it's from you
Oh, betrayal it tears me up inside...
I'm just a fool, who... is... terrified

There's gotta be someway back to earth
I'm drifting away as the world turns
We'll never get back to where we were facing oblivion... there's no words

I am weightless, yet heaviness defines
Between what home was & the yellow moon
My love, I will... not survive
Emotion sickness... well... I wanna die

There's gotta be someway back to earth
I'm drifting away as the world turns
We'll never get back to where we were stare into oblivion, oh it hurts...
Don't say you love me no more
Thought we was equals
Broken peoples keep score, yeah.
Don't say you really care like you really do
Who would believe in you now?
