

Queensryche, When the rain comes

Youve come to me
Again my friend.
Ive been waiting so long.
Life seems strange
And hard sometimes
Maybe I wont make it this time.
Oh, theyve taken all I have
But I just need
Whats left of today
And you can wash it all away.
When it all comes down and
Im feeling tired and afraid
Youre always there
And seem to come when
Ive nothing left to give away
Now I wait for
Your winds to come
And give me
Breath for another day
And your rain to wash me.
I feel the rain coming.
I feel it in my heart
Take away my pain.
I feel the rain coming.
Wash me down, wash me down.
Here comes the rain.
Hold me now, just for awhile.
I feel like
A candle flame in the wind. The dust of my deeds past
Covers me like a fading lie.
I feel the rain coming.
I feel it in my heart
Wash away my pain.
Wash me down, wash me down.
I feel the rain coming.
Here comes the rain.
