Queensryche, When the rain comes

Youve come to me Again my friend. Ive been waiting so long. Life seems strange And hard sometimes Maybe I wont make it this time. Oh, theyve taken all I have But I just need What's left of today And you can wash it all away. When it all comes down and Im feeling tired and afraid Youre always there And seem to come when Ive nothing left to give away Now I wait for

Your winds to come And give me

Breath for another day And your rain to wash me.

I feel the rain coming. I feel it in my heart

Take away my pain.

I feel the rain coming.

Wash me down, wash me down.

Here comes the rain.

Hold me now, just for awhile.

I feel like

A candle flame in the wind. The dust of my deeds past

Covers me like a fading lie.

I feel the rain coming.

I feel it in my heart

Wash away my pain.

Wash me down, wash me down.

I feel the rain coming.

Here comes the rain.
