

Quiet Riot, Black Reign

[Verse 1:]

Somebodys watching, watching you all the time
Somebodys waiting, waiting for you to lose your mind
Wishes are like broken glass show the cracks of you past
Thought you left it all behind
Sailing on ship of fools
You got nothing left to prove
Hidden from the naked eye

[Chorus:]

Black reign- white light
Your pain- will ignite
Black reign -takes flight
You know it heals as it bites
Black reign- Its like looking directly at the sun

[Verse 2:]

Move my soul and take me to a higher place
Let it go and see the storm face to face
All the answers are within- the secrets that you see as sin
Its a deal that you make with yourself
Intervene your vanity
Forget about your sanity
We all have a tale to tell

[Chorus]

[Bridge:]

Blot out the rays of the sun
Deep in your mind it will come
Take all the things that youve learned
