

Quiet Riot, Strange Daze

[Verse 1:]

Pummeled from the moment you wake a void of confusion 24 hours a day
Twisted reality eternal debate the clouds are flowing somethings going to break.
Deliver me it will deliver you, faceless masses of grey and blue
The sky is falling a rain of blood
The souls are empty above

[Chorus:]

Strange Daze- its hard to accept
Strange ways- you never expect
Strange daze-Nothing makes sense
Strange Daze trying to make sense of it all

[Verse 2:]

Loss of balance with an axe to grind
People talking with nothing really on their minds
No provocation, no sparks to the flame
Investigations with nothing left say
Remember me, I wont remember you
Dogs are howling over what you do
Skin is crawling you embrace your self Im not feeling too well
