

Quietwiser, Numb

Dream, dream
My mind slips to another world
Where time stops and mysteries unfurl
And You heal me

Chorus

It takes me to a time when things are new
The days aren't grey and I'm with You
I hear Your voice, You call my name
Since You touched me I'm not the same Then I go back to where I'm from Just Your breath has left me numb Back alone, so it seems,
so I close my eyes and I dream

Scream, scream, I want to scream up to my home
There are things that I love and there are things that I don't
But You hear me

Chorus

I wake up everyday open my eyes come what may Wondering where I've been,
Not suffering And I feel
I can make it one more day, the stars will come He'll take me away
But for now, hard it seems
Soon I'll close my eyes and I'll dream
