

Quietwiser, Whistle

Look to the sky, close my eyes
And the world begins to spin
Take a deep breath for myself
This state I'm in
Try to reach out just to feel about
Nothing but air
Listen for Your voice,
For you to breathe
But You're not there -
but I long to be with You

Crawl on the ground,
Feet drag around
Head down in shame
Humbly repeating, I am pleading
Screaming Your name
I long to be with You

Chorus
Wandered through this journey all alone
Stranded on the lost path I was shown
Lucky time passed
And now I have grown
I'm coming home
