

Quo Vadis, Dysgenics

Oooh alright, ooh let's go!

Think you've got the control?
A string of words I've heard before
Tread the path, walk the line
You let yourself believe the lies
Your whole life is just an empty shell
Abandoned soul, angel from hell

Eyes fixed on you
I see your thoughts
Pierce the darkness
Words flow from the wounds
Bring to life the lifeless
No image can replace
The dark fall from your grace
Dreams last as long
As it takes to remember
They always fade

When all is said and done
You'll see that there's still only one
Pain you caused, hate you filled
There's not much left
Of you so called will
So now you look, and now you find
The truth in a cesspool of lies

-Solo-

Wake up
You're in disorder
Wake up
You've got nothing to give

-Solo-

Eyes fixed on you
I see your thoughts
Pierce the darkness
Words flow from the wounds
Bring to life the lifeless
No image can replace
The dark fall from your grace
Dreams last as long
As it takes to remember
They always fade
