

Qwan, I Put One Penny Away

Yo, Shigeto. This song wasn't supposed to be on this album. You supposed to be right here man. I
I put one penny away for the ones that I love
I try my best to make it when heaven calls from above
I put one penny away for the ones that I love
You make me come with all my money I can't say goodbye
I'm bringing the pain it's spreading through my veins
These shoulders is getting heavy I feel desperately restrained
My knuckles is bloody punching on the concrete with my fists
Death wish on the verge of a good guy gone shit
Oh lord, give me the power the strength I need
Oh lord, show me the way and I'll follow your leads Together hand in hand we walk as we follow the streams
Crazy family falling off like leaves off trees
Oh no I can't seem to take it no more
Shigeto, I look up to you cause you extraordinary yo
I feel that we the same besides we both capitals yo
My idol see child and then I couldn't say goodbye, oh why?
It feels like I can't breathe right
What the hell does this world want from me? Is this a fight?
Alright, I'm standing right here I aint going nowhere, anytime, anywhere
Oh, you gonna feel my wrath
Well I explode in a blast
You gone chose the wrong guy to trash
My angers worse than a fatal car crash
Beware my comeback will indeed be fast
I put one penny away for the ones that I love
I got to do it for my family cause this is my blood
Hear me now, it's my destiny to follow your steps
Till death, Shigeto. I love you, you'll always be the best
I put one penny away for the ones that I love
I try my best to make it when heaven calls from above
I put one penny away for the ones that I love
You make me come with all my money I can't say goodbye
Why? Why did you take it? Take it away. It's not fair. She was supposed to be like this.
Why is this world about money? I hate this shit!
I don't know where to start yo this is the same
Why lives got to be so hard just to maintain
Why people got to die god tell me why?
I don't understand why life's so short
Every minute, every second they're the ones that I love
They're the ones that I lost in the heavens above
You always in my heart nothing keeps us apart
This is just a start so follow me
You my enemy, you feel this end of me?
You know I'm coming in the rain there no way you stopping me
You put this anger and this hate inside of me
I turned it around and use it productively
Beware of the dog who's crying keeps you calm
And when you get close he rips off your freaking arms
Get along get your arms as you panic a storm
Realize it's too late, it's bait, check mate
You're been pawned
Bomb locked it's Qwan
The one and only Qpid and Wanton
Behold the powers rain over you so strong
Feel the energy when I spit it to the song
So family's first fuck the rest it's all just a test
Your money aint shit so follow your dreams
You know, follow it to the end of the world yo
I put one penny away for the ones that I love
I try my best to make it when heaven calls from above
I put one penny away for the ones that I love
You make me come with all my money I can? say goodbye
So Scared now, beware now

You probably pissing in your pants and you scared now
So scared now, beware now
You probably sipping and you pissing in your pants now
Oh shit now, they coming now
Be scared mother fucker we coming now
So where you going now
Are you running now
Mother fucker please
Ha! Ha! Ha! Ha!
