

Ra, Skorn

Dear John,
I'm sorry. I can't do this anymore.
You're not the man I fell in love with and I have to move on with my life. Goodbye.

Chorus
You were the one who'd never leave
Beautiful eyes you seemed so free
Touching your face I felt complete
Holding your hand my heart would weep

So everything that came out your mouth was full of lies
You looked me right dead in the eyes
You'd call your girlfriends and tell them how I abused your Trust You did your best to demonize

Chorus

You were the one who raped my soul
Beautiful lies you stole my hope
Touchin gyour ass I scratch the skin
Holding your neck I tie the rope
Pulling it tight

Chorus

You were the one the one for me
Now that your gone it's hard to see
So much of me has gone away
There's no need to stay another day

But someone has to pay
