

Rachael Lampa, Free

What would you say if i told you about
A love too good to be real would you reply that you've heard it a million times
You throw up your hands-never understand
Turn and walk away,cry another tear
I know where your're coming from
I was Searching for the road that would lead me home

Chorus

Where i'm free

free to believe what is real to me
Free-free to believe that he lives in me

La La La...La La La free

How would you feel if love fell in your arms

With the tenderness of a child

Would you be able to finally open your eyes

A love so strong it nevers begs-never borrows

Never steals from anyone

Even if i bend even if i sway even if i lose my way

I will always come home

Repeat Chorus

Free to love-free to dance-free to live your life with open

Hands thatreach for the way-closer to the edge youre hear the Music play awaking all that once was slumbering's alive again

Cause i'm free...

Repeat chorus
