

Rachel Proctor, Didnt I

so hard to kno the reason so hard to know the truth when it's all over and everytime i look back i just get more confused so i replay every kiss and every clue i mighta missed

didnt i make u happy didnt i get inside ur heart didnt i make you love me didnt i didnt i (baby)

you turned my world upside down you turned my world inside out but i still lost u didnt i didnt i

why do i keep believing what am i hopin for why cant i let u go i did all i could do why do i think theres sumthin more i just dont understand how love slipped through our hands

why do i think the fault is mine was it me at the wrong time maybe i could move on if i knew the reason why
