

Rachel Stamp, Did I Break My Heart Over You

I want to love you
But I'm afraid to love you
I want to kiss you
But I'm afraid to kiss you
My soul is burning
You see me shiver with anticipation
I think I know you
I think I recognize you
Didn't I break my heart over you

I want to love you
But I'm afraid to love you
I want to kiss you
Your kiss is deadly poison
It seems to me that
You don't know the meaning of virtue
I want to hurt you but
I was born to be an angel

Didn't I break my heart over you

Is this the real thing
It feels like everything
My head's exploding
Every time I touch you
