

Radical Noise, Hear My Heartbeat

Hear my heartbeat lie falling snow
I'd like to dry your tears with love
Don't arouse your compassion with my words
We are all lost in this labyrinth, dare to ignore!

Get away! Run away!
Run!

Innocence is raped
With a bullet in the head
Trigger is pulled by our hate

How it's like to not to see the sunlight again
How it feels like being voiceless, unable to scream
My voice, my fight, my life, my pain
Meet me at your heart, I'm in your veins

Get away! Run away!
Run!

Innocence is raped
With a bullet in the head
Trigger is pulled by our hate
