

Radio Head, Ggging Order

I know what you're thinking
But I'm not your property
No matter what you say
No matter what you say

Move along
Just a body

A couple more for breakfast
A little more for tea
Just to take the edge off

Move along
Just a body
Pouring down the street

Move along
