

Radney Foster, Nobody Wins

U said this aint over yet
I said things that I'll regret
Wont be easy to forget
Scars take time to heal

Before another bitter word gets used
I was hoping we could call a truce
Cause no body wins
we both lose
Hearts get broken and love gets bruised
When we light that same old fuse again and again
No body wins
slammin doors
we both lost this fight before
And I wont play this game no more
Cause no body wins

Darlin we got too much pride
It dont matter whose wrong or right
Honey love aint black and white
The way I feel bout u

All I want to do is hold u tight
I cant take another angry nite

Nobody wins
We both lose
Hearts get broken and love gets bruised
When we light that same ol' fuse, again and again
Nobody wins
Slammin doors
We both lost this fight before
And I wont play this game no more
Cause nobody wins

I know somethings bout to break if we dont bend Baby whats it gonna take. . .

Nobody wins
We both lose
Hearts get broken and love gets bruised
When we light that same ol' fuse, again and again
Nobody wins
Slammin doors
We both lost this fight before
And I aint gonna play this game no more
Cause nobody wins

Nobody wins
Nobody wins
