Rage, Bottlefield

We are going to attack Another barrel's cracked tonight On the banner beer and booze We rape the bottles on the loose (oh yeah)

Bottlefield Fun and coma side by side Bottlefield Could you say who's at your side?

All they filled up was in vain Pools remember former times Smoke and laughter all around Drunken bodies on the ground

Bottlefield Fun and coma side by side Bottlefield Could you say who's at your side?

There is still a rest of men Only crap is on their minds But if they try to get up The alcohol will tear them down

Bottlefield Fun and coma side by side Bottlefield Could you say who's at your side?
