

Raghav, C'mon

Sometimes I think I need a place to get away or runaway to Everybody keeps on stressing at me everyday
I don't know what to do
I've spent my life searching for peace of mind
But nothing ever slows down
So baby sometimes I just close my eyes
And pray that you were around

Baby c'mon, c'mon
'Cause my heaven on earth
Is in your eyes
Baby c'mon, c'mon
Say you want a better life
Baby c'mon

I feel I'm always working for the deadline
With no end in sight
Everybody's getting theirs
While I just get by
I wanna know life
I always doubted what I knew I had
But now I know that it's true
'Cause I have visions of my perfect world
And my perfect world is with you

Baby c'mon, c'mon
'Cause my heaven on earth
Is in your eyes
Baby c'mon, c'mon
Say you want a better life
Baby c'mon, c'mon
'Cause my heaven on earth
Is in your eyes
Baby c'mon, c'mon
Say you want a better life
Baby c'mon

I could travel round the world
Search the seven seas and more
But their glory would be lost
'Cause you're what I'm looking for

So baby c'mon, Baby c'mon
'Cause my heaven on earth
Is in your eyes
Baby c'mon, Baby c'mon
Say you want a better life
Baby c'mon

Baby c'mon, c'mon
'Cause my heaven on earth
Is in your eyes
Baby c'mon, c'mon
Baby c'mon
