

Rainbirds, Nowhere

thank you lover
you made me forget myself
i fell unconscious
and when i woke up
i was dreaming that i need you
but now i am far away from you yet i`m another part of you and i like to be dreaming that i want you
no, i don`t want to recover yeah, i like to be shifting i am out here
i am happy
for the way that i feel
and i don`t bother finding out what is fake or what is real
in the end i don`t remember anything at all
i am here
and you are there
we could both be anywhere
nowhere to go
nowhere to go
it seems we`ve got nowhere to go
yes, and i heard you say let`s just take the easy way take it easy, take it easy wakinp ain`t easy, no
when you`re lonely
yeah, you made me forget
