

Rainer Maria, Terrified

On these old streets
I can't believe you're not walking next to me.
I can almost feel your hand
in my back pocket.

Oh baby, when your eyes close
you're so terrified,
so terrified.
So am I.

When your plane climbed and banked southeast
I thought,
"He's never coming back."
Yeah, it sounds cheap
but when you take my heart
I'm gonna take it back.

Oh baby, when your eyes close
you're so terrified, so terrified.
So am I.
You're so terrified, so terrified.
So am I.

You could be waiting all your life.
And it's so wrong to wait.

But you're so terrified, so terrified.
So am I.
You're so terrified, so terrified.
So am I.

When my plane sighed and turned northeast,
I felt my little heart attack.
Yeah, it sounds cheap
but when you take my love
I don't want it back.

Oh baby, when your eyes close.
