Ramones, Apeman Hop

He's go so many problems
You can count them one by one
He's a filthy, stupid apeman
He never has any fun
He lives in the jungle in a cave by a hill
Plays an old loud drum
He's primitive, barely human

Apeman hop, apeman hop

Paint the face of a demon, glowing by the fire light Hoppin' like an elephant Thunderin' like me tonight He's the world's worst recycler The iceman comes a lot He's the devil's apprentice He's a prehistoric man

Apeman hop, apeman hop

At night he's gonna sacrifice his beloved apeman girl Tie her to the alter, pull out her heart and eat her flesh

Apeman hop, apeman hop, apeman hop, apeman hop Apeman
