

Rancid, Supersonic

Are you gonna be ready to use it
If you hesitate theyll pursue it
Put the gun to the dome no question
Now the holy ghost in queston

What about the banks
When they say go
Standing at the top and cant let go
Standin cant take cant take that time
When I try sometime I cant stay high

Are you gonna be ready to use it
If you hesitate theyll pursue it
Good and evil erme from above
Death peace eternal love

Bleeding at the gates and I cant come in Courage that abates a life of sin
Sure that it holds and it holds no others
With the lies of the brave and the kid dont matter
